Filing starts Monday

First step for running for school board

By SUSANNE INDELICATO
Staff writer

Candidates for Quad-City area school boards may begin filing their petitions Monday for the Nov. 5 election.

The filing dates for the Granite City, Madison and Venice school boards will run from Aug. 18 to Aug. 26. The final date to withdraw a filed petition is Sept. 5.

THE FOUR SEATS will be elected to four-year terms on the Granite City Board of Education in November.

The four seats are held by Tom Miofsky, Monroe Worthen, Ruth Lahr and Alan Crider.

Miofsky has announced he will not run again. His petitions have been picked up by the remaining three incumbents as well as about 10 other people, Granite City school officials said.

THE HOURS for filing petitions at the Granite City School Board office are 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on weekdays, except Aug. 26, when the office will be open until 5 p.m.

In Madison, five school board seats are to be decided, including four four-year terms and a two-year term.

These five seats are held by President Paul Bargiel and Ed Newsome, Billie Bosworth, Ed Dohnal and Ed Warchol. All the incumbents except Bargiel have picked up petitions, school officials said.

Bargiel announced at a School Board meeting Thursday night he will not seek re-election.

The hours for filing of petitions at the Madison School Board office are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays.

ALL INCUMBENTS whose terms are ending on the Venice School Board have picked up petitions, school officials there said.

The five seats open in Venice are held by Alvester Salmond, George Wade, Kirk Gardner, Jerry Ciclo and David Levy. Four four-year terms and a two-year term are to be on the ballot.

The Venice School Board office will be open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays for filing petitions.

Voloski running for sheriff

Former Madison city police officer Thomas E. Voloski announced today he is actively seeking the Republican (GOP) nomination for Madison County sheriff in the March 1986 primary.

Voloski, the Republican committeeman for Venice Precinct 8, is currently contacting other Republican precinct leaders for support, the primary election is Aug. 12.

A "street cop" for 10 years and a detective for five years, Voloski is considered a "no nonsense" type of officer, backers said. He gained admiration of fellow officers when as a detective, he quickly solved a combination home invasion and homicide, they said.

Voloski said he has been considering running for sheriff for the past two years.

With his background in police work, plus his business experience, Voloski said he believed he "will be able to give the residents of Madison County effective protection and aggressive law enforcement."

Commodities available

Officials in Chouteau, Nameoki and Venice townships and the Salvation Army have announced they will give out surplus government commodities this week.

Commodities will include processed cheese, rice, butter, dry milk and flour.

THE RICE, DRY MILK and flour are all in short supply and persons will be asked to take their choice of one.

All products will be given out on a first-come, first-served basis by ticket number received at the door.

To be eligible to receive commodities, persons must be residents of the township where they are getting the cheese.

THE MFT BE the head of a household or the spouse, have their Social Security number, and sign an affidavit that their total household income is within the guidelines.

Recipients are to bring some proof of residency other than a driver's license.

An unpaid utility bill or a voter's registration card is adequate, officials said.

MONTHLY INCOME guidelines are as follows: one-person family, $547; two in the family, $735; three persons, $900; four persons, $1,110; five persons, $1,300; six persons, $1,485; seven persons, $1,673; eight persons, $1,860; and $188 for each additional member of the household.

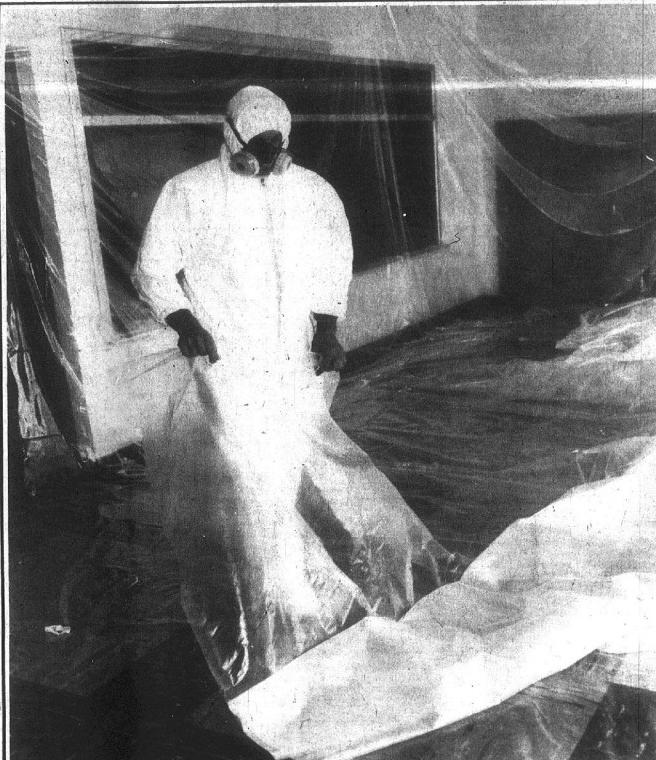

Chouteau Township will begin distribution at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, Aug. 21, at the Chouteau Township Senior Center, 697a N. Thorngate Drive, Mitchell.

Due to a change in the trucking company and a new delivery schedule, the doors will not be open until 8 a.m.

VENICE TOWNSHIP will give out commodities at 9 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 22, at Engelbert Hall, 10th Street and Washington Avenue, Madison. Township officials note there will be no discrimination on the basis of race, sex, creed or national origin.

The Salvation Army, 3007 E. 23rd St., will begin distribution of commodities to Granite City Township residents at 9 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 22. A representative sale commodities will be distributed even if there is no demand, officials said.

Nameoki Township will give away commodities starting at 7:30 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 20.

PROTECTIVE GEAR. Jim Conkling of Mount Olive takes on an alien appearance in this plastic-lined Venice classroom, where preparations are being made to remove asbestos ceiling material. When the dust starts flying Monday, Conkling will add protective eyewear and gloves to his disposable suit and respirator. (Staff photo by Patrick Foley)

Debris Commission no longer needed

The California Debris Commission is a federal agency that was created 92 years ago to regulate the hydraulic gold mining industry.

But hydraulic gold mining is a practice that has fallen into disrepute around the turn of the century and hasn't been used at all for more than three decades.

Then why does the California Debris Commission still exist?

Your guess is as good as anyone's. Some say it's because the San Joaquin shrimps and the Galapagos tortoises have survived for tens of millions of years, but no one knows why the California Debris Commission has been around since the days of Grover Cleveland.

Here's the story:

In the mid-19th century, California miners discovered their picks, pans and shovels and began unearthing veins of gold by washing down hillsides with streams of water. Debris piled into streams and rivers, inundated the land, and California's central valleys into oceans of mud and gravel.

Farmers and others who wanted to assess the navigability of the state's rivers lobbied for 30 years before they finally won a court battle banning hydraulic mining. But within a few years, the miners had resorted again into the dangerous mines and the "Panic of 1852" ensued. Railroads declared bankruptcy; hundreds of banks folded; and thousands of commercial ships were wrecked.

Congress leaped to the rescue and created the California Debris Commission to revive the gold mining industry and regulate the commission. It was attached to the Army Corps of Engineers and the three commissioners, all high-ranking corps officers, began issuing permits and requiring contractors to add sediment traps to contain the debris.

The commissioners have never received salaries (other than their Army pay), have no staff, office, or expenses. Their annual salaries totaled only $3 million — or about $80 million, depending how the figures are interpreted.

But the fact remains that the California Debris Commission has had very little to regulate for a long time. Its powers were substantially reduced by the Flood Control Act of 1936 and the Clean Water Act of 1972. During the 1970s, it had only one permit on file. The wording of its annual report has not changed significantly since 1952, though it hasn't spent a dime in five years.

"It's kind of unique," said Mike Helm, chief of operations for Sacramento county offices of the Army Corps of Engineers. "That you've got a commission that is not burden on the taxpayers whatever."

When Gen. Paul R. Karr, then commanding general for the Sacramento district in 1979, he automatically became a commissioner. "Somebody informed me I was a member of the California Debris Commission. I thought I was going to be a glorified junk man," he told our reporter Kenneth Reid.

In one of his first acts as a commissioner, Kenneth Reid recommended that it vote to dissolve itself. The motion carried and the recommendation began to work its way up the Army chain of command. In Feb. 1985, the Defense Department finally asked Congress to write the commission off the books.

The requisite language was inserted into a massive water bill that was approved by the House Public Works and Transportation Committee. But it has to be considered by four other committees before it reaches the House floor this fall.

Like the snakes down South, the California Debris Commission probably isn't going to die just yet. It will crawl out of its head and beats it with a stick. Even then, it won't die until the sun goes down.

DIPLOMATIC DIGEST: Has the legate James Baker affected the diplomatic license plates issued to the Soviet Embassy in Washington is one marked "SX 007." The car is parked frequently on 16th Street outside the embassy, but whether it belongs to a SMERSH agent, the FBI won't say.

In the Soviet Union, workers in vocational schools are assigned to "escort" shipments of their products. The official Soviet newspaper Pravda recently reported that sometimes "an escort gets so drunk that not only the cargo but also he himself has to be carried out."

EDITORIAL: How nice to learn recently that the minds of college-age kids will now be protected from the influence of the new Communist intellectual vigilante that calls itself "Accuracy in Academia." The new organization will post signs in the classroom in search of the "10,000 known Marxists" supposedly teaching there.

This prompts an observation: We are up to our necks with ideologues and doctrinaire people. We are up to our necks with right-wing fanatics and their 25-word formulas for solving the world's problems. We wish they would cease their public blather and carry among themselves, and leave us in the middle of the road.

"It's kind of unique," said Mike Helm, chief of operations for Sacramento county offices of the Army Corps of Engineers. "That you've got a commission that is not burden on the taxpayers whatever."

When Gen. Paul R. Karr, then commanding general for the Sacramento district in 1979, he automatically became a commissioner. "Somebody informed me I was a their consideration of the project. After a cursory study, the city of Colinsville has apparently done the same.

The people involved in this current effort to create an airport with commercial possibilities are no doubt intelligent and, I assume, sincere. Therefore, they must be aware that this can only be done by forming an airport district and imposing additional taxes upon the people within.

Pontoon Beach chose to avoid this and we will resist any move to include the village in any such district.

We have the most growing municipality in the area, and we are expanding at a very rapid rate. With the completion of Interstate 255, the corridor along Highway 162 from the Granite City limits to the bluffs is expected to undergo the most active commercial development in the end of the century. This type of growth will provide revenue and jobs, while the airport would, in itself, be a liability.

It is regrettable that we may lose the air force base, which at times hinders our airport activities, but in an attempt to develop the site as a commercial airport is unfeasible.

imately two years for the completion of the grant. He wanted his million up front.

At first glance, a "municipal airport" appeared to be a grand idea, but further study proved it quite so attractive.

The first consideration, of course, was the money needed to finance it. This seemed to be no way that it could be raised without additional taxpayer involvement. We were determined that this would not be the case.

We also looked at what we would have to do if we did get the airport. The improvements required to meet minimum standards were estimated to cost in the millions. And after these improvements were completed, we would still be left with an airport with very little commercial function.

The airport strip would have to be extended to over 5,000 feet and a nearby business would have to be removed from the glide path. This would require more land purchases.

All these things considered, Pontoon Beach withdrew from any fur-

Granite City residents should take pride in city, work to make it come alive

To the Editor:
Wake up, people! You, too, are from Granite City. Are you second rate?

We rave about our children and how talented and brilliant they are. People talk of the fine products of our school drama department presents.

They ask if you have heard and seen the swing choirs. They rave about the Salem Dancers. There are front-page stories about all the scholarships the graduating seniors have received.

This town has produced singers, dentists, physicians, doctors — both M.D.'s and Ph.D.'s — lawyers, preachers, priests, authors, educators, actors, military leaders, and on and on.

Teachers really can see out of the backs of their heads!

Some teachers have the ability to combine this keen sense of eyesight with throwing ability.

One of my colleagues received a teacher who only could see out of the back of her head, but who could combine this ability with a great arm.

While writing on the blackboard,

the teacher saw who was talking, sneakily picked up an eraser, and WHAAM! — you were chalked up as a violator for the rest of the day.

It's not easy being a student these days, what with teachers having super powers and all.

But I'm not saying those super powers are always good. Just wait for summer vacation and all.

An innocent bystander may hit instead and you could be the victim.

The best method of defense is to keep quiet and develop a good ducking motion.

Always look out for teachers armed with "weapons."

When I was a junior in high school, my co-homeroom teachers were coaches for the football team.

They would come in every monning, looking very calm and unassuming to warm up suits.

But they were armed — one of a whistle and the other with a stack of textbooks.

One coach would start the day by blowing his whistle to get our atten-

So students going back to school better watch out for their teachers.

They really are super.

ARSON SUSPECTED IN FIRE AT MOBILE HOME

The Madison County Sheriff's Department has requested an arson investigation into a mobile home fire Aug. 14.

Mitchell firemen responded to a fire at Lake 27 in Edgewood Mobile Home Park on W. Chain of Rocks Road. A witness told authorities she saw a man and woman near the mobile home shortly before it caught fire. Another witness described a suspicious car in the area as a dark green Chrysler.

APARTMENT IS DAMAGED

Jean M. Cheneau, owner of rental property at 2545 Washington Ave., said someone damaged several items in the apartment. The kitchen cabinets and a medicine cabinet were torn from walls and a bathroom fixture was uprooted.

James T. Ryan, 82, of Granite City, died at St. Elizabeth Medical Center at 9:55 a.m. Friday, Aug. 16, 1985, following a lengthy illness. He resided the Colonial Haven Nursing Home about two years and was hospitalized the day before.

Mr. Ryan owned and operated the Ryan Funeral Home in Mounds from 1931 until retiring in 1972. He was born in Grampian, Pa.

A resident here for the past three years, he was a member of the Knights of Columbus Council 1027, Lion's Club and the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Ryan also was a member of St. Mary's Cemetery Board of Stewards, with a sister, Mrs. Jim Conkling, one of the employees.

Among the survivors are two daughters, Martha Watson of Granite City and Mary Louise of Mounds; a son, the Rev. Robert Chlopecki officiating. Jones Funeral Home of Villa Ridge is in charge. Local arrangements were made by Mercer Mortuary, 1416 Niedringhaus Ave.

Graveside services will take place at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 18, at St. Mary's Cemetery Cemetery in Mounds, with the Rev. Robert Chlopecki officiating. Jones Funeral Home of Villa Ridge is in charge. Local arrangements were made by Mercer Mortuary, 1416 Niedringhaus Ave.

YOU CAN BANK on it!

WILLIAM PATTON
EXEC. VICE PRESIDENT
Central Bank

Q: I have a very simple question: How much money does a family need to have in a savings account?

A: That is a simple question with no simple answer because each individual's situation will mandate a different amount. However, there are some questions you can ask yourself or your banker to determine the right answer. For example, if your goal is to own your own home within, say, three years, the required down-payment could be a major factor in determining the amount you should be depositing each month in your savings account. If determining how much should be put in a savings account for emergencies, this can also vary. Again, the answer depends on your situation. A general rule of thumb is that a savings account should be maintained at no less than three months living costs. Whether or not this is right for you might be something you can talk over with your banker.

hostile environment, one of the unpleasant aspects of the job is heat.

Wrapped from head to toe in a one-piece suit made of Tyvek, a disposable paper-like material, the workers look as if they'd be more at home on a spaceship rather than in a Venice school building.

Working in summer heat in a tightly enclosed area, where there is no air flow, can be uncomfortable, breezy, makes for a real hot day, said Jim Conkling, one of the employees.

THIS WORDS sounded mumbled coming through the double filtration mask which covered his nose and mouth. Sweat beaded on his forehead as he had yet to start the heavy work.

Once a employee has finished work for the day, he strips off the work suit and discards it before entering the airlock.

After a thorough shower, the worker goes through the airlock into a "clean" compartment within the trailer where he dons his street clothes and leaves.

THE WORKMEN plan to get the asbestos removed by Oct. 1.

After that, Lemire said a non-asbestos acoustical plaster will be sprayed on the ceiling to make them safe.

Removal work will be completed by the end of the month. The job superintendent said.

How long the employees feel about the work and the complicated factors involved in doing it?

"We get the training and it's part of the job," one man replied, as he shuffled along the plastic covered floor anxious to get out of his protective gear.

Polka dance set Aug. 24 at South Broadway Athletic Club

A benefit polka dance will be held on Saturday night, Aug. 24, at the South Broadway Athletic Club, 2301 S. Seventh St., in St. Louis.

Beer, setups, diet and regular soda, snacks and dancing from 8:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. with the Remedie

Band are all included in the admission price. Prizes will be given.

Profits from the dance will be donated to various local children's charities in memory of Al "Curly" Krutewicz, who died in 1983.

Krutewicz is credited by many with having revived polka music in St. Louis on a year-round basis at his old Little Poland Tavern, located at South Grand Boulevard and Delor Street during the 1970s.

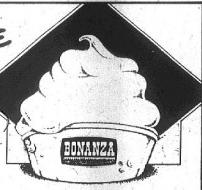

"Polka '85 will give all polka-lovers an opportunity to kick up their heels for a good time and for a worthwhile cause," said Mary Bomarito, program chairperson.

For reservations and ticket information, interested persons may call 1-314-776-1725.

Regional hospice unit elects Millett as secretary-treasurer of GCLHO

Nina Millett, program director of Hospice of Madison County, has been elected secretary-treasurer of the new Greater St. Louis Hospice Organization (GSLHO). Jean Garrison, director of the Hospice program at St. Joseph Health Center in St. Charles, Mo., was elected president.

The group of hospice program directors and coordinators hope to promote the hospice concept of care for terminally ill patients and their families through professional and community education, cooperation among existing and developing hospice programs within the area, research, and health care legislation and regulations.

Hospice of Madison County is a community based, not-for-profit agency affiliated with St. Elizabeth Medical Center, Granite City.

CENTRAL HARDWARE®
OPEN SUNDAY
10 A.M. TO 6 P.M.

Short treats from around the kitchen

Seashell Salad

Total Seashell Salad
 8 oz. pasta shells
 1 cup finely diced celery
 ½ cup diced green pepper
 6 cherry tomatoes, halved
 1 tbsp. finely shredded onion
 1 container (8 oz.) lowfat plain yogurt
 ¼ tsp. basil
 ½ cup chopped cooked ham
 Pepper
 Cook pasta according to package directions. Drain in colander. Rinse with cold water. Drain again. While shells are cooking, combine celery, green pepper, tomatoes and onion in large bowl.
 Add pasta, yogurt, basil and ham. Stir until well blended. Season to taste with pepper. Serves 6.

Onion Salad

1 large sweet onion
 1 can (9½ oz.) light tuna chunks, broken slightly
 2 peeled red apples, diced
 1 can (13½ oz.) pineapple tidbits, drained
 ½ cup slivered almonds
 ½ cup dairy sour cream
 2 tbsp. pineapple juice
 2 tbsp. lemon juice
 Lettuce or romaine
 1 can (8½ oz.) sliced pineapple, drained
 Chopped fresh dill weed or parsley
 Peel and thinly slice onion to measure about 3 cups.
 In large salad bowl, separate onion into rings. Toss with tuna, apples, pineapples and almonds. Make dressing by mixing sour cream with pineapple and lemon juices.
 Pour dressing over salad ingredients. Toss gently. Serve on lettuce or romaine and garnish each with half pineapple slices and chopped dill or parsley.
 Makes 8 servings.

Roast Beef Salad

½ pound fresh green beans
 Mustard Dressing
 12 oz. lowfat yogurt
 2 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
 1 tomato, quartered
 Arrange green beans in a shallow glass casserole. Pour Mustard Dressing over. Cover; refrigerate 1 hour. Drain beans, reserving marinade.
 Arrange lettuce on oval plate. Arrange beans, beef, eggs and tomato over lettuce. Spoon reserved marinade over all.
 Makes 4.
 Mustard Dressing
 1 clove garlic, pressed
 ¾ cup oil
 ½ cup red wine vinegar
 1 tbsp. Dijon mustard
 ½ tsp. salt
 Combine garlic, oil, vinegar, mustard and salt in a screw-top jar. Shake well.
 Makes 1 generous cup.

Taco Salads

¾ cup reduced-calorie Russian dressing
 2 cups cut-up cooked chicken
 2 tsp. chili powder
 2 cups cooked rice
 2 medium tomatoes, cut in wedges
 1 medium green pepper, cut into chunks
 ¼ cup shredded cheddar cheese (about 1½ oz.)
 1 cup shredded lettuce
 In medium bowl, combine dressing, chicken and chili powder. In 2-quart bowl or casserole dish, layer chicken, green pepper and chicken mixture. Top with cheese and lettuce; chill.
 Makes 4 servings, 370 calories each.

Salad Dressing

1 can (7½ oz.) low sodium tomato soup
 ¼ cup oil
 Grated peel of ½ lemon
 2 tbsp. lemon juice
 2 tbsp. chopped green onion
 1 tsp. prepared horseradish
 Generous dash cinnamon, if desired
 In jar with lid combine soup oil, lemon peel and juice, onion, horseradish and cinnamon. Chill. Shake well before serving.
 Makes about 1½ cups, 2 mg. sodium per tablespoon and 35 calories per tablespoon.

Double Salad

1 cup cottage cheese
 ½ cup raisins
 1 cup bacon bits
 Crisp salad greens
 3 small bananas, peeled
 Thick 'N Creamy Dressing
 1 cup halved strawberries
 1 cup sliced kiwi
 Cherry tomatoes or grape clusters
 Combine cottage cheese, raisins and cinnamon. Mound in center of 2 salad plates lined with crisp salad greens.
 Cut ¼ cup banana; set aside and reserve for Thick 'N Creamy Dressing.
 Slice remaining bananas and arrange along with strawberries around cottage cheese. Serve with Thick 'N Creamy Dressing.
 Makes 2 servings.
 Thick 'N Creamy Dressing: Combine reserved ¼ cup mashed banana, 3 whole strawberries, ½ cup yogurt and 2 tablespoons honey in blender. Whirl until smooth.

Tutty Fruity Salad
 6 slices whole wheat bread
 1½ cups whipped cream cheese
 12 orange slices
 12 apple slices
 9 green grapes
 12 avocado slices
 Fruit dressing
 Pour dressing over sandwich. Garnish with toasted coconut, chopped nuts and berries.
 Makes 6 sandwiches.

Peaches colorfully on top
 Pour dressing over sandwich. Garnish with toasted coconut, chopped nuts and berries.
 Makes 6 sandwiches.

Peppery Salad

Fruit Dressing
 1 cup mayonnaise
 2 tbsp. pineapple juice
 2 tbsp. lemon juice
 Combine mayonnaise with juices and beat until smooth.
 Yields ½ cups.

peaches
 2½ cups water
 1 cup brown rice
 2 tsp. salt
 2 medium tomatoes, cut into 1-inch pieces
 Bring water to boil in medium saucepan. Stir in rice and 1 teaspoon salt. Cover tightly and cook over low heat until all water is absorbed, about 15 minutes.
 Transfer to large bowl; cool to room temperature.
 Combine ½ cup of the tomato pieces, mayonnaise, lemon juice and garlic; pepper sauce, pepper and remaining 1 teaspoon salt in blender or food processor container. Blend until smooth, 1 to 2 minutes.

 Cover and refrigerate remaining tomato pieces.
 Stir dressing into rice. Cover and chill until cold overnight.
 Just before serving, slice cucumber into ¼-inch slices; cut each slice in half. Add cucumber and reserved tomato pieces to rice, tossing gently.
 Makes 6 servings, 213 calories each.

Trittshuh: Sports Festival a stepping stone

By JAMES BLASINGAME
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY Steve Trittshuh, a two-time All-American for Granite City North's soccer Steelers, brought home a silver medal from the sixth annual National Sports Festival. The games took place in Baton Rouge, La., July 27-Aug. 4.

A Union stopover in Southern Illinois, University at Edwardsville, Trittshuh played the same role for the men's North Team at the Festival and helped his squad to a second-place finish. Trittshuh and his team won four games against other select squads from the nation's South, East and West. And after compiling a 2-1 record during the week-long tournament, the North dropped a 3-1 decision to the West in the championship match.

"Trittshuh scored the North's only goal in the final contest but that wasn't particularly satisfying for him, since the North had already defeated the West earlier in the week."

"Two of our starters didn't play in the last (title) game," Trittshuh said. "They got kicked out of the game against the South (a red card at the end of the first half) and I got an ejection from the current contest, but also a suspension for the following game). It was really physical down there. The referees couldn't really control it (the game), and it got out of hand."

Trittshuh may not have received a gold medal at the Olympic-styled games, but just making the North squad is quite an accomplishment. First, Trittshuh earned a spot on the Missouri Select Team by standing out in a crowd that included players from SIUE, St. Louis University, University of Missouri-St. Louis and Lewis and Clark College.

From there, he attended a week-long camp in Akron, Ohio where the Missouri Selects competed against other state select teams. The youthful eye-candy Panek, Panek, the Marquette University soccer coach, studied the contests and then hand-picked athletes to compete for his North team.

"He (Panek) was really strict — really disciplined with his players,"

Trittshuh said. "But I got along great with him."

In fact, Trittshuh got along great with everybody at the National Sports Festival. The competition and activities proved to be as enjoyable for him as they were beneficial.

"It was an unbelievable experience," said Trittshuh. "The opening ceremonies are great. To light the torch, they used lasers from one end of the stadium (Louisiana State University's) to the other. And people were素质 great. The whole town of Baton Rouge treated you with respect. They were really friendly."

Trittshuh said that he and his teammates spent most of their free time away from the competition.

"I was just focusing on other sports. The team handball was really exciting — I'd never seen that before. And we saw Greg Louganis (diving champion) and boxing was really neat. All the sports that are in the Olympics were down there. We watched a few of everything."

"There was a really high feeling with all the sports — a high intensity. Everybody just wanted to do their best," he said. "I got to cover some pretty good players. Jeff Hodder, UCLA standout who played for the American National Team.) I had a really good game against him. I just marked him out. He didn't have one shot on me, but that's my job."

And how did the competition at the Sports Festival turn out?

"It really got me up for the season (SIUE's) both mentally and physically. With such good competition if got me ready," he said. "I'm really looking forward to this year."

Trottshuh and his team mates will try to improve on last year's 8-7-3 mark, as well as get SIUE back into the NCAA post-season tournament after a two-year absence.

"I had a good season last year, but I hope to have a better season this year," said the six-foot, 180-pound defender. "And I hope the team does a lot better. We haven't made the (NCAA) tournament the last two years."

But according to Trottshuh, things are looking up for the Cougars.

"I've got a good feeling. We picked all through the winter, and we picked up a couple of good recruits. We've worked pretty hard the last two weeks," Trottshuh said. "He (SIUE) coach Bob Guelker) gave us a week off after last year, and then we started working out again. The main reason for that is to get into the tournament this year and start winning some games again."

Aside from a successful season for the Cougars, Trottshuh has other goals set in mind, like playing in the Pan American Games and possibly the 1988 Olympics in Seoul, Korea. The National Sports Festival can be Trottshuh's stepping stone to both.

"Next year they'll be picking the Pan Am team from the Sports Festival," he said with a hint of determination.

And the Olympics?

"Right now, I'm just seeing what the talent is like. In the next couple years they'll really get serious because it will be getting close to Olympics time," he said.

Trottshuh also has an opportunity to try out for the World University Games which will be held in Japan in September. But commitments to SIUE kept him from pursuing the possibility of making the team.

"I'm looking forward to this year pretty much. Guelker only needs two more wins to get us into the (NCAA) tournament." Trottshuh said. "I'd like to be a part of that," he said, thinking about the trip to Japan. "Oh well, there's next year when I try to make the Pan Am team."

Quitting while you're ahead PR/J SportScoreboard

By AL BARNES
Staff writer

The young Turks in the St. Louis office of Peat, Marwick & Mitchell, member of the world's largest (365 offices) CPA organizations, were, or thought they were, being polite when they invited senior partner, Daniel Skelly Reilly, to come out and "suit up" for a league game of accountants several years back.

In his happenings of times in various types of offices of all kinds throughout the United States. The younger staff members, sure of their vitality and vigor, make the gesture and in most cases don't mean it or hope that the older man won't show up.

Eyebrows went up when the team gathered out at Forest Park for the game when Dan Reilly showed up.

He was relegated to a hard seat on the bench, but he stayed there until the middle of the fourth inning with his team losing badly, you might say "hopelessly," but the firm demurred, saying: "When you are ahead, you quit. And three out three is fairly good, you know, and I wasn't going to push my luck," Reilly said.

To set the record straight, Reilly's feet and ability with the bat wasn't a fantasy or Walter Mitty-like day dream.

The baseball world didn't get a chance to see just how good Dan Reilly was with bat even though his record on the University of Mis-

Sports of all Sorts

By Al Barnes

Marwick & Mitchell team closed the gap to within two runs. Several times, Reilly could rally coming up once again, hardly showing his 40-plus despite his heroics with the bat.

He hit the first pitch for a home run, but his team lost by one run.

The young Turks, all accounted used to tag Reilly half-jokingly, playing on the team, but he firmly demurred, saying: "When you are ahead, you quit. And three out three is fairly good, you know, and I wasn't going to push my luck," Reilly said.

Offered a pro contract, young Reilly opted to get immediately on with his chosen career: accounting.

He added, in explanation: "I was too slow."

With that kind of hitting, who needs to be fast?

souri at Columbia was nothing less than instant. Yes, even amazing.

In three years, he was star and regular on one of Coach Hy Simons' great baseball teams. Reilly was named an All-American. And, batted a total of .365 for the three years as a Tiger squadman.

In fact, his .363 posted his (1960) on the Mizou U. team is still the best ever recorded in the Big Eight Conference baseball history.

He played in the Tiger varsity in 1960, '61 and '62, as that was in the Big Eight Conference baseball history.

Offered a pro contract, young Reilly opted to get immediately on with his chosen career: accounting.

He added, in explanation: "I was too slow."

Winter bowl league signs up

Local bowling enthusiasts have scheduled two registration dates for persons and teams wishing to participate in a winter league.

Bethany Lutheran spokesman and a member of the St. John's Go-Getters, says there are currently two vacancies in that ladies league and another popular league, that of the Dorothy Peacock Memorial League.

Registration for the John Go-Getters will be at 9 a.m. on Monday, Aug. 19 at Bowland Lanes, located at 5050 Nameoki Road, out by Granite City Center. League play will begin a week later, Aug. 26.

Registration for women seeking to play in the Brokaw Memorial League will be held later that night, Monday, Aug. 19, at 8 p.m. Registration for the Brokaw League will also be held at Bowland Lanes. And, like another popular league, the Go-Getters, which is sponsored by St. John's United Church of Christ, Brokaw League play will begin on Aug. 26.

Although members of St. John's and organzied church league, Hunter said, church play is not restricted to members of that church. "We're trying to establish an inter-church league," Hunter said. "We're welcoming all churches to play."

A third league, the Early Ladies League, will play on Friday evenings during the 35-week winter league, has scheduled a meeting at Bowland on Tuesday, Aug. 20, at 7 p.m. That league, Hunter said, is full.

GCHS golf practice begins

Golf practice for those Granite City High School students wishing to represent the school during the spring, fall season will begin on Monday, Aug. 19.

Golfers should meet GCHS golf coach Russ Chappell at Arlington Golf Course at 8 a.m. At that time, Chappell will establish a practice schedule.

Chappell reminds his athletes that they must have a physical examination prior to the first practice. Physical examinations will be given at the high school Monday; girls at 5:30 and boys at 6:30 p.m.

Stadium Run is Sept. 22

ST. LOUIS — More than 3,000 runners from throughout the region are expected to participate in the Seventh Annual Stadium Run which is set for 1 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 22 at Busch Stadium.

The unique 6.2-mile run through downtown St. Louis is a staggered start race that begins outside Busch Stadium, and finds its way through the city's streets prior to the St. Louis Cardinals' baseball game against the Montreal Expos.

A head start is given to runners in half-minute increments depending on their age and sex. Time handicaps are based on a national handicapping system.

To enter, runners should send an entry form and $6 to Stadium Run,

How to avoid racket blisters

Tony Dawson, a director of racket sports at the Los Colina Sports Club in Dallas, has this advice on taking care of your racket hand:

"At the first sign of redness, stop and put on an adhesive bandage, then finish the game. Remove the bandage after play to allow the air to help heal the blister until you play again."

"Do this each time you play, bandaging at the first sign of redness before a bubble forms, and you should develop light, protective calluses without ever blistering, no matter how hard you play."

Misfire saved Jackson

The first attempt made on the life of a U.S. president occurred in 1835 when a deranged house painter who thought he was the rightful heir to the British throne fired two pistols at Andrew Jackson from a distance of only 6 feet. Both guns misfired, and Jackson was unharmed.

Pst! Want a dimple?

A U.S. patent for a dimple-producing device was granted in 1896 to Martin Goetz of Berlin. It looked like a brace and bit. The knob, or bit — made of ivory, marble, celluloid or India rubber — was pressed on the spot where a dimple was desired, and a massaging cylinder revolved around it as the handle was turned.
